Pacific Women Shaping Pacific Development: Nauru

Through a 10-year commitment, Pacific Women Shaping Pacific Development (Pacific Women) connects more than 160 gender equality initiatives funded by the Australian Government and implemented by 153 partners across 14 Pacific Island countries. Providing technical, convening and knowledge sharing support to the portfolio of partners is Pacific Women’s Support Unit, working to improve the long-term impact of gender equality and women’s empowerment projects in the Pacific.

The Australian Government, through Pacific Women, has committed approximately $5.1 million over 10 years (2012–2022) on initiatives to support women’s empowerment in Nauru.

Figures

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Community awareness and outreach</th>
<th>Counselling and other support services</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>▪ 2 workshops delivered leadership knowledge and skills to 38 potential women candidates and three declared women candidates, through UN Women support.</td>
<td>▪ 1 counsellor adviser provided counselling and support services, plus counsellor training.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>▪ Sexual assault training conducted with Police, Home Affairs Department and medical staff in conjunction with Australian Federal Police.</td>
<td>▪ 6 people (5 women and 1 man) improved their counselling skills through studying the Diploma in Community Health and Wellbeing course at the University of New England.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>▪ 22 potential young emerging leaders participated in two leadership trainings.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>▪ Referral pathways for survivors of domestic violence established between key government service providers.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Achievements

Leadership and Decision Making

- Support for a Women’s Practice Parliament organised by UN Women helped 30 women and men to prepare for Nauru’s 2016 election by learning about parliament processes and transformational leadership. An example participant from the Women’s Practice Parliament is Gabrissa Hartman, who successfully contested the Ubenide by-election in January 2017, becoming the third woman ever elected to the Nauru Parliament.
- Nauru was represented at the United Nation’s Development Programme’s (UNDP) two Pacific Women in Power Forums, by the Hon. Isabella Dageago and the Hon. Charmaine Eraidinomo Scotty. The first forum was held in Fiji during March, and the second in Australia in November 2019. Women Members of Parliament (MPs) are using the networking, mentoring and information sharing arising from the Forum to progress initiatives back in their home parliaments.
- Women’s Affairs Officers and Legal Advisers can now represent survivors of domestic violence in court in cases concerning breaches of protection orders. This is a result of support for amendments to the Administration of Justice Act 2018 through the Pacific Community’s (SPC) Regional Rights Resource Team (RRRT) and responds to challenges of representation which have hindered the Domestic Violence and Family Protection Act 2017 since commencement.

Ending Violence against Women

- The Child Protection and Welfare Act 2016 is enacted, through support to UNICEF and SPC RRRT. The Ministry of Home Affairs is using its mandate to take action to prevent and protect children in Nauru from harm.
- Local counselling and social work capacity in Nauru is being enhanced through the Pacific Community (SPC) Health and Wellbeing Education project. Five women and one man have undertaken the Diploma in Community Health and Wellbeing course through the University of New England. This boost to counselling capacity is being complemented by referral services facilitated through the Pacific Technical Assistance Mechanism and Ministry of Health.

1 Information collated from Pacific Women implementing partner reports cumulative to June 2019 unless otherwise stated.
Pacific Women Shaping Pacific Development: Nauru

Enhancing Agency

- The Government of the Republic of Nauru increased its capacity to generate sex-disaggregated data and to use gender statistics to guide national policy and decision-making, evaluation and learning and human rights reporting. This resulted from support to SPC’s Progressing Gender Equality in the Pacific (PGEP) project.

Pacific Women Partners

Government of Nauru: Ministry of Home Affairs, Health and Education.

Other partners: Australian Department of the House of Representatives; Pacific Community (SPC): Progressing Gender Equality in the Pacific (PGEP) and the Regional Rights Resource Team (RRRT); Pacific Technical Assistance Mechanism; UN Women; UNICEF; University of New England; and Pacific Women's regional partners.